

Legomania Group

Interest in Lego and other building blocks is the basis for this group. Learning how to interact with other children of a similar age is the focus. Leaders will facilitate the process for imaginative play in order to enrich the relationship experiences for each child that participates. Staff will provide the Lego™. Children may also bring along their own Lego™ or Bionicle™. Group games will be facilitated, and dinner will be provided. Please note staffing support will be two staff for five youth. If individuals require 1:1 support, they are still eligible but will need to bring a respite worker along with them.

Come Play with Me!

Play is how children experience their world and bring meaning to it. Play, models the social framework that builds relationships for life and kindles imagination. It is through play that the children learn best. Play provides a context in which caring adults can teach children about friendship, behaviour, and promote strength and coordination. Play allows children to gain competence in a number of areas. This group involves parents playing with their children. The purpose of the group is to assist parents learn ways to facilitate play with their children so as to promote the child's development and to build relationships between parent and child.
